

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

For publication, authors are required to follow the templates provided. For the in extenso article we propose a limit of 10 pages (images included).

The citation style accepted by the journal is APA - American Psychological Association, 6th edition.

By submitting a paper to be published in ARGUMENT Journal, the author integrally and tacitly takes the responsibility for respecting the Copyright and for his/her property over the material submitted (the full text belongs to the author/s and isn't the subject of any kind of plagiarism, copying or compilation; the used sources – including photos, drawings, tables etc. – have been cited acknowledging the copyrights or the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License policy – CC BY 4.0). For this purpose, the author/s will download, fill in, sign and send the copyright form provided. At the same time, the authors assume, by signing the statement, the obligation not to republish the article sent to ARGUMENT Journal in another publication one year after the date of publication.

Authors have the obligation to correct and rewrite the article as required by the editorial team and the reviewers in order to ensure the coherence, clarity and quality of the printed materials.

Along with the in extenso article in Romanian and English and the copyright statement, authors will send separately the images used in .jpg format at a resolution of 300dpi.

All articles submitted for publication will be verified in the anti-plagiarism system. There is no fee for article processing or publishing. Authors wishing to purchase the physical copy of the journal will cover the printing costs of approximately 45 lei (€ 10).

Articles submitted for publication in the 1-10 issues of the magazine underwent a single blind peer review process. Starting with no. 11, the articles will be subject to a double-blind peer review process. The reviewers will follow the coherence and quality of the material sent for publication, the originality of the approached subject, the clearance of structure and the scientific quality of the articles.

Argument is an open access journal, fully bilingual - published in Romanian and English.
